

Pregnant and Confused?

Bellefaire is here to help.

We know that as a mother, you want the best possible future for your baby. At Bellefaire JCB, our staff will provide you with all the options, information and support you need to make an informed decision for you and your baby. Together, with counseling before and after delivery, we can help you make a loving plan for your child.

Your options may include:

- . Parenting your baby with community resources
- . Placing the baby with a family member or friend instead of your local county agency
- . Developing a specific adoption plan to meet your child's needs
- . Possible financial assistance available

Please call 216.509.9020 or 800.205.8534 to talk to a personal adoption expert who will meet with you and help you make a plan.
